PREFACE

In the first issue of Calvin Theological Journal the two objectives of the journal were stated as follows: to serve the community of Reformed theological scholarship and, through it, the ministers and members of the Reformed churches. This index to the first twenty volumes (an earlier index to the first ten volumes was issued in 1975) is now made available to facilitate accessibility to the contents of the journal.

The main divisions of the material are: Index of Articles, Index of Thesis Abstracts, Index of Book Reviews, and Index of Book Reviews. All four indices are presented in alphabetical order by author, except in the case of books reviewed, which are by author or title. The multiauthor volumes have been placed under title with cross references to the editors. Cross references have also been made to additional authors of a title. It should be noted that the Index of Articles is in chronological order under each individual author.

As far as possible, the bibliographical information of the books reviewed has been checked for accuracy and necessary corrections have been made.

Such a venture as this is dependent on the assistance of a number of people. In particular I would like to single out Martin Vander Vliet for his efforts in putting the entire index on the computer.

The editorial committee of Calvin Theological Journal is deeply indebted to Peter DeKlerk for his preparation of this index to the first twenty volumes of the journal. His orderly presentation of the materials and his meticulous attention to details have produced a valuable reference work that will be of great service to readers of the journal.
